“Avicenna Bursary 2020 - 2021”

Financial Support for Talented and Motivated Students

INTRODUCTION

All Hungarian and international students can apply for financial assistance via “Avicenna Bursary” that supports talented students who may need financial aid to pursue their studies in Hungary.

A committee of international professors will decide on the quantity of Avicenna Bursary for each applicant to study at Avicenna International College. The committee reviews the applications of each student and based on the specified criteria decides on the amount and type of Bursary for each student.

The following criteria are among the most important factors to be considered by the “Avicenna Bursary Committee”:

- Grades achieved by the applicant in science and language subjects.
- Social, cultural and sports activities of the applicant.
- Recommendations from academic and other authorities.

The decision of the Avicenna Bursary Committee will be communicated to the student and the result will be shown in the Admission Letter. The student will see how much less he/she has to pay for tuition fees or what other financial assistance he/she will get.

Avicenna Bursary Content

Students who apply to study at any program of AIC can also apply for “Avicenna Bursary” which may include one or more of the following:

1. Financial support for tuition fees.
2. Financial support for academic books.
3. Financial support for lunch and dinner.
4. Financial support for dormitory residence.

5. Financial support for medical insurance.
6. Financial support for sport and social activities.
7. Financial support for student travels.
8. Financial support for exam registration fees.

All financial supports under the “Avicenna Bursary” are conditional to the good academic performance of the student during his/her studies at AIC. If students fail to fully attend the classes or under-performs during the academic year, financial assistance may be revoked based on the decision of the President of AIC.

Application Procedure

Students can apply for “Avicenna Bursary” anytime during their studies at AIC. This application can reach AIC together with “Application for Studies” or during the academic year based on the needs.

Qualified students should fill the application form and provide reasons and supporting documents for their request. This application/request form will be submitted to AIC which will be reviewed within 15 days after submission. The Principal and authorities of AIC can support any bursary request. The decision will be finalized by the President of AIC and communicated with the student.
